

Invitation to the Forum on Inclusion and Diversity

Whether you are already involved, are just considering getting involved, or work professionally in the field of inclusion and participation: We warmly invite you to our Forum on Inclusion and Diversity. We want to share experiences, discuss questions, learn from one another, and develop ideas together.

When: September 21, 2026, 1:30–6:00 p.m.

Where: Tamaja Gemeinschaftsunterkunft, Kirchhainer Damm 74, 12309 Berlin

Registration: <https://veranstaltungen.lnbe.berlin/20260921/>

Why should you join us?

- You can contribute your perspective, experiences, and ideas.
- You will meet other committed people and build connections.
- You will gain inspiration and ideas for your engagement.

What to expect

In small groups, we will discuss various topics:

- Get involved. Shape things together. Belong. What do I need to get involved as a volunteer?
What will help me get started? What barriers might I encounter?
- Active and engaged with limited resources
What do I want to achieve? What resources do I have? Where can I find support?
- People with refugee backgrounds as bridge-builders
- Migrant – feminist – engaged
Using volunteering as preparation for a career
- Workshop: Navigating the tensions of helping
Proximity, boundaries, and self-care – professional attitudes in social work and volunteering with refugees

Language

The forum will be held in German. If needed, interpreters will be available on site for English, Arabic, Ukrainian, and Russian.

Accessibility
